

Getting to Cambridge

There are direct coaches run by National Express from all London airports. The central drop-off point in Cambridge is at Parkside. If flying into Heathrow Airport you can either take the underground to King's Cross station in London and then one of the fast frequent trains to Cambridge, or a direct coach to Cambridge from the airport. It may be slightly quicker by train but if carrying a lot of luggage the coach may be easier. For train information and tickets please go to National Rail. Whether you come by coach or by train, tickets must be purchased before boarding, either online from the websites (see links above) or at ticket booths and machines at the airport or rail station.

There are taxis for hire at Cambridge train station (about a mile from the city centre) and Parkside, where coaches terminate.

Accommodation

Selwyn College is situated next to CRASSH (where the workshops and project meeting will be held) on the Sidgwick Site. For information about the College please go to <http://www.sel.cam.ac.uk/selwyn-college/>. You should report to the Porter's Lodge on arrival. If you look at the map at <http://map.cam.ac.uk/?ucam-ref=global-footer#52.202432.0.110797.16> you will see Selwyn College on the left of the Sidgwick Site in the centre of the map. CRASSH is in the Alison Richard Building on West Road at the northern side of the site. Those who are arriving in June to attend the workshops will be in standard rooms with access to kitchens offering a limited range of equipment such as toasters, microwaves, kettles, fridges. Crockery and cutlery may also be available or may have to be purchased, along with any other items guests may feel necessary during their stay. The College has a very good Dining Hall offering breakfast, lunch and dinner at reasonable prices. Please note that purchases can only be made with cash and not bank cards.

The Sidgwick Site is a short walk into the town centre with the usual banks, post offices, supermarkets etc. Ask at the Porter's Lodge at Selwyn College for maps and directions.

The Cambridge University website, <http://www.cam.ac.uk/>, offers a wide range of information for visitors, as does the Tourist Office.

Workshops and Team Meeting

These will be held at the Centre for Research in the Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities (CRASSH) which is situated next to Selwyn College. For exact location go to <http://map.cam.ac.uk/Centre+for+Research+in+the+Arts%2C+Social+Sciences+and+Humanities#52.202609.0.108725.18>.

As well as CRASSH the Alison Richard Building houses a wide range of other interdisciplinary departments including Politics, African Studies, Latin American Studies etc. There are also art exhibitions in the atrium and other departments within the building. The on-site cafeteria offers fresh, reasonably priced food and drinks, but please note that the opening hours out of term (during your stay) are limited. The Building is open from 8.30am until 5.30pm.
